

DW Reporting Announce Clyde & Co LLP Law Firm Win

Clyde & Co LLP selects DW Reporting to implement their new PMS Business Intelligence Solution.

International law firm Clyde & Co LLP has selected DW Reporting to assist in the implementation of their next generation business intelligence service based on Microsoft technologies to coincide with their migration to Elite's 3E practice management system.

"The firm is undergoing a major PMS migration to underpin the increasingly complex requirements of our business and we needed to ensure that we are also able to deliver simultaneously a next generation business intelligence and reporting solution to meet the firm's needs and expectations," states Paul Robins, Global Finance Systems Manager of Clyde & Co LLP. "DW Reporting's unique BI and legal domain expertise mean that they are ideally suited to assist us in the delivery of this new service."

"We are seeing significant demand for our services from law firm's undergoing PMS migration initiatives," comments Dan Wales, Managing Director DW Reporting. "Law firm management teams are using this opportunity to improve the quality, quantity, delivery and timeliness of the business information they provide to their respective business teams. Our consultative approach and best practice methodology ensures that firms are able to deliver a new BI environment seamlessly alongside the launch of a new firm wide PMS."

"The project team reviewed a number of options and decided that DW Reporting's approach and experience in the successful delivery of legal BI implementations was the best fit for the firm's needs," continues Paul. "There will be a number of phases to this project, encompassing different business requirements and DW Reporting's expertise in these areas will be invaluable."

"We look forward to working with the team at Clyde & Co on what will be a very interesting and exciting project, and one that adds further credibility to our expertise in the Elite domain, both Enterprise and 3E" said Dan Wales.
