Assign client wins as DW Reporting continues to grow specialist Assign team

DWR Reporting signs five new Assign clients and bolsters consulting team with Lydia Austerfield.

DW Reporting, the leaders in software agnostic legal BI and data solutions, has today announced that Lydia Austerfield, formally of Macfarlanes and Eversheds, has joined the firm as a Business Intelligence Consultant, further boosting their consulting headcount and to assist with DW Reporting's recently launched Managed Reporting Service, Assign.

"Since the launch of Assign in September 2015 we have seen significant interest from law firms of all sizes and business needs." said Jon Roscow, Commercial Director of DW Reporting. "In just three months we have signed up five new clients to the service including international law firm Reynolds Porter Chamberlain."

"The addition of Lydia to the team continues to build on DW Reporting's brand and unique proposition of providing comprehensive and innovative business intelligence and reporting services to law firms via consultants with direct law firm experience." adds Dan Wales, Managing Director of DW Reporting.

"Over the past three years, DW Reporting has established itself as the market leader in legal BI providing services to a wide range of national and international law firm clients. I am looking forward to being part of a dynamic team changing the way that law firms use business data to aid the growth of their business." said Lydia Austerfield. "Assign provides law firms with the ability to deliver against their strategic and tactical reporting requirements in both an efficient and cost effective manner."

"Our Assign service accommodates the irregular reporting requirements inherent within a law firm and provides the flexibility to assist overstretched internal reporting teams or firms without the in-house capability to manage this critical business needs." concludes Jon Roscow.
